

R.S. Hispaniola – New Year's Eve 2016

Continuing on from the enormous success of previous New Year's Eves on the RS Hispaniola, we are delighted to release the details of this year's celebrations.

We know the event will provide all our guests with a truly memorable evening and allow them to welcome in 2016 with the utmost style and enjoyment.

Permanently moored on the River Thames, the RS Hispaniola is just a short walk from Embankment tube station and a 4 minute walk from Charing Cross Station. The ship will be beautifully decorated for the New Year festivities and offers spectacular views of the most famous sights of London such as the Coca Cola London Eye, the Houses of Parliament, Big Ben and St Paul's Cathedral. Most importantly it has arguably the best view in London of the stunning midnight firework display, centred on the London Eye.*

Whilst not compulsory, we suggest a dress code of "Black Tie and Cocktail dresses". The ship will be appropriately decorated with flowers, fairy lights, balloons, candles and a whole host more. Novelties will be on each place setting.
